A Bridge of hope and solutions for families in transitions

OUR IMPACT

The needs are significant in the inner city of Los Angeles County, and COIPM's growth in impacting the lives of families is growing exponentially.

Despite limited resources, 2019 - 2022 YEAR-BY-YEAR growth and impact have surpassed our expectations. At the end of 2021, the Center of inPOWERmeant Inc. more than tripled. We serviced over 4250 families with counseling, support groups, groceries, rental referrals, grants, utility assistance, gas cards, furniture, housewares, basic hygiene supplies, clothing, and other referral services.

2022 we have not slowed down. We have maintained servicing 88 to 150 families weekly.

Our goal is to open our first COINPM home for families by the end of 2022 or first quarter 2023. The COINPM home offers proprietary groundbreaking 6 - 12 month Inpowering program and an eighteen month extended care for those requiring more support. With your continued partnership we can inPOWER families.
